Notes for ABRAHAM BROWN II:

Abraham Brown, II remained in Rowan Co., NC until 1816 when he and wife, Catherine Hess and probably three small children moved to Union Co., Illinois according to Perrin's History. Along about this time there was a great movement west to Union Co. because the soil in Rowan Co., NC was worn out. He purchased land from a John Brown just south of Jonesboro in the Meisenheimer precinct. He carried a large gourd with him during his movement west that contained seeds and other perishables. This gourd is now on display in the Cobden Museum. Cobden, ILL. just north of Jonesboro.

Notes for JAMES MONROE PHELAN:

James Phelan served as a private in the 2nd. Illinois Infantry Regiment during the Mexican War .After his unit was formed during the Mexican War, it left Cairo, Illinois, travelling down the Mississippi River to New Orleans, Louisiana, where they embarked for Texas. Arriving there, they disembarked and immediately marched to San Antonio. Following a short stay there, they continued their march, leaving San Antonio on September 26, 1846, and arriving at Santa Rosa, Texas, on October 24, 1846. From there the unit crossed the Mexican border to Monclova, Mexico, and then continued on to Parras, Mexico. They rested there for twelve days. During this time, James Monroe's regiment attempted to intercept and capture the Mexican president, General Santa Anna. They failed in the attempt. On the twenty-first of December 1846, James's unit occupied Aqua Nueva. In six weeks they had marched a distance of 1000 miles.

Notes for REVERAND RICHARD LEWIS BROWN:

Wrote the first History of the Brown Family in 1921, by todays standards would be considered oral history. The University of North Carolina Library has copies of the original and selling price is $150 as of 1998. Rev. Richard L. Brown was handicapped and crippled by polio, traveled around the county via horse and buggy , interviewing Brown descendents. He was a Pastor at Christiana Lutheran Church.

He organized the first gathering of the descendants of Michael Braun at Peeler's Grove, Granite Quarry, NC on July 28, 1914 "for the purpose of affecting an organization among his descendants" Although the weather was inclement the Minutes reflect that more than 200 people attended. The Salisbury Evening Post dated July 29, 1914 stated the "Brown Reunion was a great success and that 400 people were out."

Only 80 names were registered in the Minutes. The Reverend Richard L. Brown was elected President, the Reverend C.A. Brown Vice-President, Mr. Charles F. Brown Secretary, and Mr. Nathan Brown Treasurer.

Spent three years of his school days in the Confederate Army. Entered the ministry in 1868. Remained in the ministry for more than 50 years and still did much church work although he was partially paralyzed by polio.

Was baptized on August 14, 1842 at Organ Lutheran Church according to church records

Is buried at Christiana Lutheran Church, Granite Quarry NC beside his wife with a large tombstone
